Otto Von Kanel and Gust Seiler went to New Philadelphia this morning.

Miss Clara Burton returned from the East, to-day, for her Easter vacation.

Mrs. M. D. Harter, of Mansfield, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. M. Brown, Prospect street.

The Christian church is being cleaned to-day preparatory to the concert to-morrow evening.

Miss Etta Holm, of Canton, has been called to this city by the illness of her sister, Mrs. R. W. McCaughey.

H. L. Wilhelm, representing the Newark Advocate, of which ex-Lt. Gov. Lyon is editor, is in the city to-day, on business.

W. K. McCalmon, the decorator with the Bryant brothers, was called to Smithville, O., this morning, by the death of his mother.

The Loan and Building Company sold $2,700 at the regular meeting last night, the premiums paid being nine and a half and ten cents.

Yardmaster Barney Geoghan has so far recovered from the injuries sustained in his recent accident at Sippo as to be able to resume his duties to-morrow.

The department was called to Dr. T. C. Miller's residence, in East South street, about 6 o'clock last evening, on account of a chimney being on fire. No damage was done.

Mr. George Goodhart has returned from Cleveland, where he examined the ruins of his brother's immense clothing establishment, recently destroyed by fire. The insurance, he thinks, will about cover the loss.

The Rev. S. A. Sage, now of Canal Fulton, and who returned last October from a missionary station on the west coast of Africa, after some years among the coast tribes, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams over night.

The Rev. S. P. Long, who has been spending a vacation of three weeks, taken for the benefit of his health, in Maryland and other states, returned home this morning. Mr. Long is much stronger, but is far from being robust.

H. A. Kitzmiller removed his household effects to Dundee, Tuscarawas county, where his quarries are located, to-day. With Mrs. Kitzmiller he will occupy a residence there until next autumn, when he will return to this city for the winter.

An officer was summoned to the Cherry street school building yesterday afternoon on account of a number of boys who disturbed the school by playing foot-ball and yelling like Comanche Indians. The disturbing element was suppressed without the necessity of making any arrests.

The directors of the Wooster & Muskingum Valley railway and the city railway trustees of Wooster have signed the last contract papers for the completion of the road. The work must be finished by Oct. 1, 1891. This will give Wooster its long desired outlet, independent of the Ft. Wayne.

One of the largest cylinders ever made was cast recently in Pittsburg and will be sent to Sulphur City, Tex. It is eleven feet and six iches high, seven feet wide and weighs 28,000 pounds. It will be shipped on a flat car, and to avoid accidents will be moved only in the day time. The route will be circuitous in order to avoid tunnels.

A decided boom has been given fuel gas in Akron, owing to a recent reduction in the price to consumers from 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet to 30 cents. It is claimed that it will, under the reduced rates, be cheaper than gasoline, and there is no comparison between the two fuels as regards cleanliness, efficiency and safety.

The Misses Baumgardner, Sweier and Hahn entertained a large party of friends at the residence of Mrs. T. F. Geitz, in Park street last night. Progressive tiddledywinks to the extent of six tables was indulged in to a late hour. Miss May Dickinson scored the largest number of games and Mr. "Dick" Hartzel next. A good lunch was served and all had a pleasant time.

Cards were issued to-day by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jones of 108 East Center street, Akron,, for the marriage of their daughter, Lena, to Albert L. Snyder, of this city, Wednesday evening, April 8, at 7:30 o'clock, in the First M. E. church. A reception will follow at the home of the bride. Miss Jones is pleasantly remembered here, where she lived with her parents for a year or two.

James Whitcomb Riley will give one of his dialect sketches at the Grand opera house, in Cantan, next Tuesday evening. He will be assisted by the Misses Phillips, Hartzell, Blum, Douds and Biechele, Messrs. Raff and Klein.

Among the musical numbers will be a piano quartette—two instruments, and eight hands. The evening is planned to be one of unusual interest—socially and otherwise, and is under the direction of the Misses Buckingham and Lyon.

The day does not pass when THE INDEPENDENT does not refuse to admit commercial advertising into its want department, although by doing so, it could obtain over and over again the trifling fee obtained for the insertion of legitimate wants. The records prove that within the last few years the want column has been the means of restoring not less than a dozen lost watches alone, and other articles without number. Lost articles which come into the possession of honest people, are always in a fair way to be recovered when advertised.

AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

Snatches of News from City and the Court House.

CANTON, March 25.—There are no new developments in the Louisville suicide, particulars of which were telegraphed THE INDEPENDENT yesterday. Miss Detweiler, the unfortunate young woman, was a niece of J. M. Campbell, of Canton, and had been here about a month. On Saturday and Monday evening she clerked at a notion store. She had been ailing for several days, and as nothing is known that would give color to a suggestion that her act was due to some trouble, the most plausible theory is that she took her life during temporary insanity. Again it is said that a taint of insanity was inherent in the family. As to her letter, it is regarded as the product of a disordered mind. Miss Detweiler was a bright girl and made hosts of friends. The coroner has not yet concluded his inquiry into the matter. The funeral took place this afternoon.

W. H. Phelps and W. H. Ramsey have completed the examination of the county treasury. They find that there is now $191,263.99 in the treasury. There is a balance in the county fund of $63 299 63, and on the city fund of $114,134.99. There is found to be a surplus of $13,829.37, which includes treasurer's fees and unappropriated claims. In the city the street fund is overdrawn $19,498 39; the poor fund $2,485.55; building fund $5,119.88; the general fund $4,463 38; the county fund $8,892.50.

John Book and James Brennon have been arrested charged with the burglary of Schaefer's and Bohlen's tailor shops, and held in $500 bail for appearance to morrow. Indications are that they are two of an organized gang of thieves. A portion of the plunder, together with money stolen from Cavnah's saloon, was found upon their persons.

A show case in front of Stein & Mann's store was broken open last night and a cushion of valuable breast and neck pins taken. A man named John Wilson was captured with the pins in his possession and to day sentenced to thirty days in jail.

Margaret Halter and Chas. M. Henry have been appointed administrators of the estate of Joseph Henry.

The funeral of the late Andrew M. Blake, who died at Toledo, Sunday, took place from St. John's church this afternoon.

VERY YOUTHFUL RASCALS.

They Rob the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling of Railroad Tickets.

Agent Sladden of the C., L. & W. road, received telegraphic information this morning that the tickets presented to Conductor Courtright, on No 2, by two boys, had been stolen at Tuscarawas, the first station north of Uhrichsville; that the pair who had traveled on the tickets had left the train at this station, and instructing him to arrest them. The boys were found loitering about the depot and Officer Hagan was telephoned for and placed them ender arrest. At first they gave assumed names, but under pressure admitted their names to be William Shanks and Alonzo Steiner and their ages as 12 years. Upon being searched twelve railroad tickets were found in their pockets and they confessed to having broken into the depot at Tuscarawas and stealing them. The case was referred to Superintendent F. M. Townsend, who went south on No. 1, and his instructions were that the law should take its course. The pair 'o kids were then locked up and a message sent the marshal of New Philadelphia to come up after them. The father of the Shanks boy is the proprietor of a store and superintendent of a mine where the crime was comitted.

Recruiting Notice.

Recruits are wanted for Company F, Eighth Regiment, O. N. G., to serve three years each. None but physically sound and morally correct need apply. Successful applicants will be provided with neat fatigue uniform, coat, belt, cap and gun, and will be required to faithfully attend all regular company meetings without pay. Aside from the value of the exercise in developing mind and body, the service is made attractive by a week of camp life each year, under pay from the state of Ohio. In addition to this, the Ohio National Guard will encamp at Chicago during the world's fair. The service is sufficiently alluring to draw forth the best young men in the state, and is expected to do the same here. Applications should be made before Wednesday, April 1, to

C. W. ZIMMERMAN,
Capt. Commanding.

WAS THE MESSAGE SENT?

THE CLEVELAND-WARWICK STORY REPEATED AGAIN.

It is Alleged that the Telegram Was Seen on Mr. Warwick's Desk and that More Secrets are to be Disclosed—The Review's Statement.

The Alliance Review prints the denial of Mr. W. K. L. Warwick, published in THE INDEPENDENT, that Mr. Cleveland ever expressed a willingness to work in this district, last fall, on a pledge of 2,000 plurality, and it adds, by way of comment:

"It may be good politics for Mr. Warwick to deny that his father ever received a message from ex President Cleveland, saying that he would not come to the district unless Warwick was sure of 2,000 majority. The interview published in Friday's Review has been copied far and wide. And almost every leading Democrat in this county says that the facts as published are correct. A leading Democrat in this city, who for the present does not desire his name to be used, said to a Review representative, yesterday, said that he had seen the dispatch on Warwick's own desk and that The Review's statement was correct. The authority for what is termed a highly sensational correspondence comes from a Democrat who is high in the councils of his party and who is a close friend to Mr. Warwick. Some other evidence of last fall's campaign will be forthcoming very shortly. The cats in the political bag are very uncomfortable; one has already jumped out and others are getting ready to leap."

A Strange Order.

The Alliance Leader declares that orders have been issued by the officials of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railroad to all their passenger conductors to send into headquarters an account of the length of time they have been employed on a passenger train. The order has brought some peculiar incidents to light. One of these is the record made by Conductor William Lyons, who entered the service in 1850, working as a freight hand, brakeman and conductor. In May, 1859, he was promoted to the position of conductor, and has been steadily employed at it ever since, making nearly thirty-two years in the same position and work. Mr. Lyons is now one of the oldest railroad men that runs out of this city.

He Saw the Flood Come.

The Rev. J. H. Pershing, of Conemaugh, Pa., lectured before a fair audience, in Music Hall, last night, on the Johnstown flood. Mr. Pershing was an eye witness of that awful catastrophe; he saw the water rise; saw the mighty wave roll down from South Fork dam, and was among the first to get to work relieving the distressed. The lecture was purely descriptive.

The lecturer indulged in the startling innovation of regaling his audience with a vocal solo, sans accompaniment before working into his lecture, selecting for this purpose a song entitled "Lilly and the Snow Storm. The musical feature was not encored.

A Brand New Game.

Among the social games before the public, and invented for instruction, the game of the world has become the most popular. It consists of 100 cards of ten questions each, describing the nations of the earth, their land and their history. It is without doubt the most instructive and interesting game that has yet been published. It is the popular game at Chautauqua and elsewhere, and is now taking the place of euchre and other card games and endorsed by professional and business men. Arthur Kaley has taken the agency and can furnish the game to any that apply.

In the Dungeon Cell.

Another somewhat "salty" but deserved dose of justice was administered to Larry Steele, the hopeful but blooming son of Mrs. Albright Kessler, last night. He was arraigned on the charge of resisting an officer, pleaded guilty, and, in connection with a lecture from the court which might as well have been hurled at the winds, the disgusting and depraved specimen of manhood was fined twenty-five dollars and costs, and to stand committed until paid. In default of the amount he was conducted back to his cheerless cell.

The Athletic Association.

Members of the Athletic Association will please meet in the mayor's court room, Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. It is expected that the charter will be here to-morrow, and the matter of permanent organization must be pressed through promptly. The real estate committee have propositions to present, which imperatively require action before April 1. Those who have lists of members will please bring them, and those who have arranged for subscriptions, but have not yet secured them, ought to do so, previous to this meeting.

Railroad Wreck in Wisconsin.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

RACINE, WIS., March 25.—A frightful railroad wreck occurred near this city this morning, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, caused by a collision between a passenger and a freight train. The following is a list of the causualties as near as can be obtained up to this afternoon: Willis Andrews, dead; Martin Ray, dying; D. E. Burke, I. I. De Silva, John Grobben and J. Brown all may die. Seven cars destroyed. Loss, $15,000.

Mrs. Grant Brings Suit.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

NEW YORK, Mrchh 25.—It is quite likely that Mrs. General Grant will sue W. C. Andrews for $55,000, given him to invest for her. She says he deceived her as to its destination, and she has had no dividends for three years.

The question is, did Mr. Cleveland send that telegram?

Major McKinley will spend the summer in a suite of rooms at the Hurford House, Canton.

The gentlemen who have been sighing "to hear more whistlss blow" may get their ears in readiness.

There are some good pleasant fellows on the local Democratic ticket. It is a pity that they have such indiscreet friends.

The great Grover has pronounced the story that he agreed to come out here, on a guarantee of 2,000 for Mr. Warwick, a lie. Well, well. The story was started by a Democratic manager too.

The campaign against indecent theatrical lithographs is going on with vim, vigor and victory. One company has already been broken up by reason of the pasting of white paper over their vulgar display.

The American hog is all right for Americans, and anything that is good enough for an American ought to satisfy Germany. Everybody will say amen! if President Harrison cuts off German imports, in retaliation for the Kaiser's restrictions upon United States pork.

As might have been expected, on the discussion of the appropriation bill in the House, Dresbach, labeled Pot House Politician by the Toledo Blade, led in opposition to the setting aside of any sum for the canals. Dresbach succeeds as ably as any creature could in misrepresenting the people in whose stead he stands.

The Alliance Review is publishing some interesting chapters on politics just now, and the fact that The Review does not catch at every puff of dust is in its favor. THE INDEPENDENT thinks, however, that the Democrat who has supplied the information respecting the alleged telegram from Mr. Cleveland to Mr. Warwick owes it to himself, to come out of cover, and fully explain the situation frankly.

Good for you, John E. Monnot! THE INDEPENDENT does not consider you a saint from paradise, and never pretended to, but when you, a citizen of Canton, took a stand against the creature, Dresbach, supposed to be a resident of Massillon, and declared that the people of this county were unalterably opposed to any movement having for its object the wrecking of the canals, you did the brave thing, and you did it well.

The McKinley law reads:

"That when imported materials on which duties have been paid are used in the manufacture of articles manufactured or produced in the United States there shall be allowed on the exportation of such articles a drawback equal in amount to the duties paid on the materials used, less one per centum of such duties."

But in spite of this, as the New York Press says, the Democratic press has been clamoring for years for free raw materials for American manufacturkrs who desire to sell their goods in foreign markets. But now that the McKinley law, passed by a Republican congress signed by a Republican President, provides for this very thing, it seeks to obscure the fact by malicious representations.

HE WANTED THE MONEY DOWN.

Methods of a Travelling Physician in Getting Advance Fees.

One of the beneficial results, indirectly resulting from the coroner's investigation of a case of alleged quackery, is the alarm which he has thereby spread throughout quackdom, and a corresponding unwillingness on the part of the public to be duped.

It is impossible, however, to put a stop to the sort of thing which is going on in the fourth ward of this city, now. An unfortunate husband is lying ill with consumption, after having been treated properly by resident physicians. The little home is almost, but not quite paid for, and the family is kept together by the mother's efforts and the money paid by a beneficial society. One of the itinerant venders of medicine, so common about here, discovered the case, forced his way in, and assuring the man that he could be cured, aroused one last strong hope within him, that no reasoning could remove. The "doctor" could cure him, and would do so on payment of $100. This sum was a fortune to such a family, but the sick man insisted that an effort to raise it be made. Between all the relatives, they approached the "doctor" and offered to pay $50 in cash, and place the balance in bank, payable to his order when a cure should be effected. The "doctor" was obstinate. He demanded $100 in cash, and in advance, or he would not undertake the case. The man had not consumption, he insisted, and could be cured. This is the present situation. The patient cannot be induced to believe that the traveling physician has simply mercenary designs, and the family are wholly unprepared to pay $100 with no prospect of a return of any kind.

NOTES FROM FULTON TOWN.

Business Booming and Vacant Houses not to be Found

CANAL FULTON, March 23.—The renters who have not secured houses 'ere this will be obliged to put up tents and camp out for this summer, as all the houses that are habitable are taken, and many, too, that have not been occupied for years are being put in shape for occupancy. Much real estate has changed hands, and at an advanced figure (McKinley bill). With good water power, good shipping facilities by railroad and canal, plenty of first class coal, and an undeveloped coal territory, what is to hinder our town's growth and advancement? She has been sleeping for a year or so, but is now wide awake and is only waiting to receive and welcome any new enterprise that will appreciate the benefits she can offer.

The Smith house, which for two years has been unoccupied, is about to again see the light of day. Negotiations are again pending and if concluded satisfactorily, it will be used as an office for an up-town dentist and also furnish a comfortable home for two families from the West Side.

The lecture of Miss Olof Krarer, the little Esquimaux lady, was largely attended Saturday evening in the high school room, and was a great success in every way.

Mr. Dunn and the L. A. W.

Announcement has been made that President Dunn of this city has appointed C. S. Randall, of Chicago, to be chairman of the L. A. W. racing board. Mr. Randall is a resident of Chicago, while it was the impression that, in the face of the difficulties with the racing men in the east, and the arrangement of an Alliance with the A. A. U. and L. A. W., all of which would have to be adjusted by the racing board, Mr. Dunn would have given the preference to a man in that locality. It is now the hope that Mr. Randall will select for his constituents on the national board men who are thoroughly familiar with the existing difficulties surrounding the L. A. W.

While no action has been taken by the league of American Wheelmen on the matter of an Alliance with the American athletic union, on account of the absence of President Dunn it is the general impression among the wheelmen that the form of alliance as proposed by the A. A. U. is a very fair one and should be adopted by the league.

James Whitcomb Riley.

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, will give one of his dialect sketches, at the Grand, in Canton, Tuesday evening, April 7. He will be assisted by the best local musicians, including Miss Douds, Miss Dora Blum, Miss Hartzell, Miss Eva Phillips, the Misses Biechele, and Messrs. Klein and Raff. Tickets may be obtained now, at the box office.

Did you see the fine programme in last night's paper for the concert to be given at the Christian church, corner East and Oak streets, to-morrow evening.

Catarrh is not to local but constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla to effect a cure.

THE TOWNS ROUNDABOUT

Newman.

D. E. Reese reached the climax last week in his postal examinations, by throwing the state of Minnesota perfect in the shortest time on record.

Mrs. Thomas Williams, of Canal Fulton visited friends here part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Abel James of Massillon.

Republicans of Lawrence township will hold their primary to nominate township officers on Saturday of this week, and as our precinct is entitled to the trustee this time, it is hoped that all will show up on that day.

Miss Sadie P. Williamson, after marrying a Mr. Baughman, is now a resident of sunny Kansas.

The Corn Dodger literary society closed last week in a pleasing manner. John Reese read a periodical that was well received.

The Democrats announced a caucus for last Saturday eve, but as Phillip A. Young and Thomas Kennedy were the only ones present they concluded to go into executive session with closed doors. It is supposed that the balances due the boys from the last November election occupied their attention during the entire session, for they were notified that unless the promises that were made last fall are not made good very soon, there will be some tall bolting done in the future. "So mout it be!"

We notice that newspapers when referring to this place still continue to call it Youngstown Hill, when the fact is Youngstown Hill has long ago become defunct, and for the information of all we desire to say that this place is known as Newman.

Mr. Wm. Smith and Miss Bessie Bell closed their winter term of school in this place last Friday, giving general satisfaction. The exercises in the afternoon were well attended by our householders, and they were highly complimented. Both teachers have been secured for our summer term.

T. V. Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, gives the best and most concise report of the New Orleans massacre that we have read. He properly defines the position of the "better class," for they are to blame in having this country flooded with Italians, Chinese, etc., just for the purpose of fighting honest labor, and now that the reaction has come they ("the better class") are getting a chance to taste their own medicine. Cheap labor is a detriment to the best interests of our country, no matter from what standpoint you may view it. As a choice between Italians and Chinese the latter have the preference.

ECHOES FROM THE SHOPS.

Note and Comment on Men and Doings at Russell Co.'s.

Word is received here to-day that Mr. John Walters, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, is no better.

The Rev. J. H. Pershing, who lectured last evening on the Johnstown flood, in Music Hall, visited the shops yesterday afternoon, with the Rev. S. A. Sage, of Canal Fulton.

Mr. Jacob Wagner, of Duncan street, who has been ill at his home with the grip at the same time that his entire family was afflicted, has again returned to his work in the foundry dedartment.

Mr. George Cupps, of the foundry department, has again reported for duty after five days experience with the grip, from which other members of his family are yet suffering.

It is not an unusual nor an unpleasant sight to see the kind, considerate, courteous, gallant and handsome Jacob Spuhler escorting a bevy of happy lady visitors through the works, and we gratefully acknowledge the compliments he usually pays the distinguished gentleman of the Echoes as the leading attraction to tourists of refined tastes who are admirers of the beautiful. Our retiring bashfulness will not allow us to say more. We will never say anything wicked of Friend Spuhler again.

"We want 200,000 skunks, 150,000 mink, 100,000 raccoons, 500,000 muskrats and all grades of other furs." This was the astonishing announcement on a card received by us last evening from Weil Bros. & Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind. It was a stunner to us, for we never tried to kill but one skunk, and the unfortunate feature of the experiment was that it was alive. We have always regretted that we did not wait until that skunk had died before we went to kill it. We will never forget the strong impression it left on our mind and our clothes as well. We cannot understand why this startling information should come to us, unless it is because it was announced in the "Echoes" some time ago that "Coon Skin Barker," who is sojourning among us, has a number of caves along the banks of the Tuscarawas stored full of furs; so we have turned the card over to him.

It was reported that Henry Hubbard had returned from Indiana yesterday. So he had, as we had hold of his hand in the real flesh and blood Saturday evening, but he left again for Richmond and other places in Indiana. Will that suit? Of course it will.

There is an April tinge to the air to-day which brought the boys during noon hour out into the green in front of the shops with ball and bat. The blank and yellow striped caps give them a picturesque appearance.

FUNERAL OF THE FAMOUS CONFEDERATE GENERAL.

The Last Great Soldier of the Civil Conflict Laid to Rest—The Services Conducted With Simplicity — Battle-Scarred Veterans Quite Numerous at the Church.

WASHINGTON, March 25. — Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock yesterday over the remains of the late Confederate general, Joseph E. Johnston, at St. John's Episcopal church. The church was crowded with Confederate veterans and many people prominent in official life. The services were of the simplest character. No attempt at decorating the church was made and no flowers save a wreath of immortelles on the coffin were visible. This simplicity, characteristic of the man, was observed at his earnest request, as he did not desire any display. Though the church was filled with battle-scarred veterans, there was not a uniform visible to announce the fact. The last great soldier of the civil conflict was buried as a civilian, not as a soldier.

Services at the Church.

Rev. Dr. Douglass, the rector of St. John's church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. McKim, Confederate chaplain of Johnston's command during the war, conducted the services. He read a lesson from St. Paul to the Corinthians, after which the choir sang the beautiful hymn, "Just as I Am." Dr. Douglass then recited the Episcopal burial service. "Rock of Ages" was then rendered by the choir, and the congregation joined with fervor with the rector in reciting the Apostles' creed and the Lord's Prayer, with which the service closed. There were few dry eyes among the aged, bowed veterans, as the remains of Gen. Johnston were borne from the church to the hearse by members of the Ex-Confederate Association of Washington, who followed the old veteran throughout the war. They were Capt. T. J. Luttrell, Private W. A. Gordon, Private Charles Wheatley, Maj. Anderson, president of the association; Maj. H. L. Biscoe, Surgeon W. P. Young, Private Lee Robinson and Capt. J. W. Drew. The remains were conveyed to Baltimore over the Baltimore and Potomac railroad.

THE CONFLICT IN CHILI.

The Navy Department to Send Admiral Brown to That Country.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Apprehensions concerning the unsettled state of affairs in Chili have caused the navy department to decide on sending Admiral Brown, the commandant of the Pacific station, to that country as soon as possible. Admiral Brown will sail within the next fortnight in the San Francisco, to which he will transfer his flag. His present flagship, the Charleston, will be prepared at the Mare Island navy yard for sea service, and she will leave to join the San Francisco in Chilian waters as soon as possible. Admiral McCann, the commandant of the South Pacific squadron, who is now in Chilian waters, will withdraw his flagship, the Pensacola, to the east coast of South America before Admiral Brown arrives. Admiral McCann ranks Admiral Brown. In order to prevent any possible conflict of authority that might arise from having a senior officer serving under his junior rank, the department has decided to have Admiral McCann return to his own station. A number of officers on the Charleston have been transferred to the San Francisco and the department is doing all it can to expedite the departure of the latter vessel. The navy department has practically no details of the conflict in Chili, but newspaper accounts and other sources of unofficial information have made Secretary Tracy and his advisors apprehensive of serious trouble.

Mr. Groff to Leave for California.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Commissioner Groff of the general land office, whose resignation has been accepted by the president with fifteen days' leave of absence, was at his office and held an informal reception, which was attended by every clerk and messenger attached to the office. Mr. Groff will leave Washington for California next Saturday to engage in private business. It is not believed that he will accept a judgeship on the private land claim court, even if it be tendered him.

Judge Groff's Successor.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—It can now be stated as certain that ex-Representative Carter, of Montana, has been offered the commissionership of the general land office to succeed Judge Groff. Thus far Mr. Carter has declined to say whether he will accept the office, or indeed to discuss the matter in any way whatever. His friends, however, think that he will probably be touched by the compliment, and yield his own preferences.

High Water at Lawrence, Mass.

LAWRENCE, MASS., March 25.—The Merrimac river has reached twenty-three feet and is rapidly rising. This is the highest point reached for years. Over 1,000 operatives are now idle on account of water stopping the mills.

Henry Harrison's Condition.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The condition of Henry Harrison, M. P., is quite serious. Pneumonia, which was feared, has at length set in, and the physicians say his case is critical.

THE CONNECTICUT LEGISLATURE.

Legal Proceedings to be Brought Against Gov. Bulkely and Comptroller Staub.

HARTFORD, CONN., March 25.—The senate met at noon yesterday, but immediately took a recess. The Democrats went into caucus on the Thayer and Seymour substitutes for the Judson measure for settling the gubernatorial question. It is believed that they will favor the Seymour substitute. If they decide to adopt that measure they will not receive any Republican support. The Republican committee of sixteen is in session at the capitol considering the advisability of an adjournment or a recess by the house. The executive secretary, Mr. Brainard, will bring proceedings against Comptroller Staub for the payment of his salary. It is said that Comptroller has had several consultations with his lawyers as to the advisability of bringing criminal proceedings against Governor Bulkely for having the door leading from the executive chambers to the house retiring rooms forced open. It is stated that the writ citing Comptroller Staub to show cause why he should not pay the salary of Executive Secretary Brainard has already been issued and is returnable on the 17th of April. This will bring the question of who is legally the governor of Connecticut directly before the courts.

NICHOLLS' LETTER TO BLAINE.

A Copy of the Letter Sent to the Italian Minister, Who Defers Action.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Secretary Blaine sent to Baron Fava, the Italian minister, a copy of the letter of Governor Nicholls about the New Orleans affair. The next move must be made by Baron Fava, as the United States is powerless to do anything while the action of the avengers is being investigated by the New Orleans grand jury. Delayed action or failure to hold any persons responsible for the killing may decide Baron Fava to take active means to bring about some settlement satisfactory to the Italian government. He will probably receive advices by cable within a day or two from Rome as to what course he shall pursue.

BOILED ALIVE.

Horrible Fate of a Drunken Visitor to a Pittsburg Salt Works.

PITTSBURG, March 25.—Last Thursday Henry Reddy, whose home was on Beaver avenue, Allegheny, entered the salt works of Haller, Beck & Co., on Rebecca street, in an intoxicated condition. After a struggle the watchman succeeded in putting Reddy out of the building. He sat down in an open window, and had not been seen since. Yesterday his body was found at the bottom of one of the boiling salt vats. It is supposed that he went to sleep on the window-sill and fell backward into the vat, where he was literally boiled to death.

The Defunct Louisville Bank.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 23.—The further the affairs of the Schwartz bank, which failed here last week, are investigated, the greater the liabilities and the smaller the assets. The investigation of the experts shows that the bank has been insolvent for ten years, since which time it has been robbing Peter to pay Paul and by offers of exorbitant rates of interest has got hold of the savings of a large number of working people. So far the liabilities reach nearly a million, while the assets consist of nothing but $300 worth of mutilated currency left in the safe. The cashier has disappeared. The directors will be arrested on a criminal warrant.

The Regiment Wins Their Suit.

GETTYSBURG, PA., March 25.—The suit of the Seventy-second Pennsylvania Volunteer regiment against the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Association and the State Monument Commission has been decided in favor of the regiment and decrees that the monument of the regiment shall be erected at the rear of the stone fence at the place known as "Bloody Angle" and midway between the monuments of the Sixty-ninth and Seventy-first Pennsylvania Volunteers.

Trying to Save Murderer Moss.

WILKESBARRE, PA., March 25.—Another effort is to be made to save George W. Moss from being executed. An affidavit has been prepared by some of his friends which will be presented to the governor and a respite asked for until the case can be reviewed by the supreme court. The time for the execution of Moss is between 10 and 3 o'clock Thursday. Moss is indifferent as to his fate, and says he will face death with a smile.

She Sues for Divorce.

LONDON, O., March 25.—Mrs. Harriett F. Gillett instituted in the court of common pleas suit for a divorce from Frederick C. Gillett, her husband, who recently shipped for parts unknown after forging several notes. The grounds for divorce, as enumerated by Mrs. Gillett, are gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. She also asks for restoration of her maiden name.

Brakeman Killed on the Big Four.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 25.—John McCarthy, a brakeman on the Big Four railroad, was killed by falling under a moving train from the car on which he was sitting. He was horribly mangled. His home is at London. He has a wife living here. He is the fourth brother of the same family killed on railroads in the past three years.

THE OPENING JUBILEE.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR DEDICATION.

10,000 Troops of the National Guard and Several Regiments and Batteries of the U. S. Regulars to Take Part in the Ceremonies—Mammoth Civic and Industrial Demonstration.

CHICAGO, March 25.—The committee on ceremonies has made public an abstract on its voluminous report on the arranged programme for the world's fair dedication ceremonies in October, 1892. The opening ceremony will be a grand military display, Tuesday, Oct. 11. In this 10,000 troops of the national guard and several regiments and batteries of United States regulars will participate. On the evening of this day it is proposed to give a series of tableaux giving the salient facts in the life of Columbus. Wednesday will be the main day of the dedication ceremonies, and will be ushered in by a national salute of forty-eight battery volleys fired by all the batteries in attendance. At 10 o'clock the troops will form and escort the president of the United States, diplomatic corps and distinguished foreigners to the main building, where they will be greeted by the consolidated bands playing "America." After the forty-eight states represented by their governors and staffs have followed, the programme of dedication exercises will be given. In the evening there will be a continuation of tableaux representing historical events in American history. On Thursday there will be a mammoth civic and industrial demonstration, which will fully illustrate all departments of industry. There will also be a grand dedication ball in the evening. Friday, Oct. 14, the last day of the celebration, will be devoted to military exercises.

THE MILITARY DISPLAY.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The board of army officers detailed by the secretary of war to prepare the war department display at the world's fair held its second formal meeting at the rooms of the departmental board of management yesterday. The session was chiefly devoted to the consideration of details of the schemes of the several war department branches and the work was brought to a conclusion, the plans of the department being now complete, subject only to such enlargement or modification as the appropriations may warrant. The scheme is surprisingly comprehensive, embracing not only illustrations of the war resources of the country and the methods of manufacture and preparation, but everything in the line of modern surgery and medicine, as well as everything in the way of means of communication from the flag signals and carrier pigeons to the latest telegraphic and telephonic inventions adapted to war purposes.

VICTIMS OF THE GRIP.

The Disease Worse Than Ever in the City of Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 25.—The grip epidemic is unabated in this city and the mortality continues appalling. The deaths for two weeks aggregated 1,540 or thirty-five per thousand which is unprecedented in the history of Chicago. Nearly all died from climatic complaints. Drug stores have been compelled to increase their force of clerks. Undertakers are crowded with work, and many funerals are taking place as early as 7 a. m. and as late as twilight. The hospitals of the Alexian Brothers, the German Brothers, the Augustana hospital, St. Joseph's hospital and the Presbyterian hospital, which usually take only paid patients, have opened their doors to the victims of the grip and are crowded. Eight physicians of the German hospital were taken down yesterday, and seventy-two nurses of the Illinois training school for nurses, who have been ministering to the sick, have succumbed since Saturday, and some are in a critical condition. At the Women's and Children's hospital, out of a staff of forty physicians, nurses and attendants, all but five are unfit for duty. The physicians are in hopes that the disease will wear itself out, but all say that until there is a change in the weather no great improvement can be expected.

THE CALIFORNIA SENATORSHIP.

Three Witnesses Testify That They Knew of No Money Being Passed.

SACRAMENTO, March 25.—The joint committee appointed to investigate the evidence found in a waste basket of the state librarian's office, on which was founded the suspicion that money had been paid to certain members of the California legislature, examined Harbor Commissioner W. H. Brown, W. B. Carr and John T. Dare, attorney, all of San Francisco, who have been summond as witnesses at the suggestion of Attorney General Hart. These three witnesses were asked if they had any knowledge of money drawn from the Fresno bank, and if they had paid any money to members of the legislature. They all denied having paid out any money whatever, and stated they had no knowledge of money drawn from the Fresno bank. They also denied any acquaintance with John B. Jones, messenger of the Southern Pacific railroad, to whom the cashier of the Crocker Woolworth [illegible] money of the Fresno bank had been paid.

A MUSEUM FREAK.

Peter Haus Will Try to Eat a Calf and Drink a Keg of Beer in Two Hours.

NEW CASTLE, PA., March 25.—Peter Haus, of Wampum, has laid a wager that he can eat a calf and drink a pony of beer in two hours. The trial will take place next week. Haus stipulates as a condition that he may stand in a tub of hot water during the performance of his gastronomical feat.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

COLUMBUS, O., March 25.—The bill prohibiting the bringing of detectives into the state to do police or military duty, known as the anti-Pinkerton bill, which recently passed the house, was defeated in the senate.

The senate passed Green's bill providing for the exemption from garnishee of wages to the amount of $50 of a single man who is the support of a mother or minor child of a relation. The senate also passed Lamping's bill to define the boundary between Lockland and Wyoming. Shutte's bill authorizing Cleves to issue $1,600 in bonds to purchase fire apparatus also passed the senate.

Pending consideration of the Wallace bill giving Columbus a federal form of government the senate remained under call over three hours. The bill was finally referred to Mr. Wallace with leave to report at any time. Senator Wilson created considerable merriment by referring to Mr. Soncrant as sockless Simpson from Erie.

The house spent the entire morning in the consideration of the general appropriation bill, which was the special order. They ran along smoothly until an amendment was proposed appropriating $4,000 for the Hocking canal. This inaugurated the old canal fight and it waged fiercely until noon, when a recess was taken, leaving the matter unsolved. Discussion of the appropriation bill finally drifted into a fight on canals, which were left in a somewhat battered condition. When the part of the appropriation bill relating to the board of public works was reached, Mr. Price, of Hocking county, offered an amendment giving the Hocking canal $4,000 above its earnings. The amendment was defeated, and Mr. Dresboch, encouraged by the disposition of the house, directed the attack to the Ohio canal and offered an amendment wiping out the $24,000 given it in addition to the earnings. Mr. Geyer amended by allowing the Ohio canal $23,000, which carried by a vote of 43 to 41.

CAR SHOPS BURNED.

The Citizens Traction Company, of Pittsburg, Suffers a Heavy Loss.

PITTSBURG, March 25. — The large brick car house of the Citizens' Traction company, in the East End, was badly damaged by fire yesterday. The building is located at the corner of Penn and Frankstown avenues, and comprises the stables, repair shops and storage departments for cars and other company property. It was a hard battle for the firemen, although there were plenty of them and an abundance of water. But the flames completely enveloped the whole second story of the building. Eight cable and three horse cars were stowed near the repair department and the flames fastened on these. Their fire created an intense heat, which caused the walls to bulge, letting the iron roof down. The loss is estimated to be $20,000, which is covered by insurance. The exact cause of the fire could not be determined, but it is thought that the electric light wires became crossed and ignited some of the wood work.

A Noted Murder Case.

TIFFIN, O., March 25.—Attorney Lonlitt, of Fort Wayne, Ind., representing the defense in the forthcoming trial of the noted Mervin Kuhns for murder, has just returned from a visit at Kuhn's old home, in Northern Indiana, in search of evidence. In an interview Mr. Lonlitt clearly outlines the defense. "I can prove by three witnesses, and not horse thieves or burglars, either," said Mr. Lonlitt, "that Kuhns was in Green Center, Noble county, Ind., the night of the murder at Fostoria."

Governor Peck's Veto.

MADISON, WIS., March 25.—Governor Peck yesterday sent a message to the legislature vetoing the bill which appropriates $50,000 for the support of the Waupaca Veterans' home on the ground that the bill does not properly guard the state in the disbursement of the appropriation. The governor recommends the introduction of a new bill which will give the state proper control of the veterans' home.

BOUND BY TREATIES.

SAYS HON. W. H. SMITH IN BEHALF OF NEW FOUNDLAND.

Parnell Will Surely Resign, then Run for Re-Election—Two Hundred Chilian Rebels Tied Together and Shot to Death—Other Interesting Foreign News.

LONDON, March 25.—The Hon. W. H. Smith, in receiving a deputation of merchants and others interested in New Foundland, repudiated in behalf of the government any purpose to coerce that colony. "We are bound by treaties," he said, "and when the other party holds views on the subject of the treaty engagements so strongly as France does there is no other alternative for arbitration but war. If New Foundlanders think the terms of arbitration injurious the government is prepared to hear their views, but it must be remembered that the conditions were imparted to the colony before being agreed to by the imperial government." Referring to the necessity of a modus vivendi in view of the approach of the fishing season, Mr. Smith replied that a most inflammatory document had been circulated on the west coast of New Foundland, a document which was likely to seriously imperil the peace of the empire. This showed the urgency of the case and the danger to which the colony was exposed by resistance to an arrangement directed solely to securing the interests of the New Foundlanders. The imperial parliament must insure the performance of treaty obligations by the local legislature.

A STATE OF THE REPUBLIC.

New Foundland Will Appeal to America for Protection and Admission.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 25.—The action of the imperial government in submitting to arbitration only one feature of the fisheries troubles with France, and the attempted passage of an act through the British parliament to coerce New Foundland into carrying out the modus vivendi, has caused great excitement in New Foundland. Delegates will immediately proceed to London and protest against not only the enactment of the coercion law, but also the reference of the fisheries question to arbitration without the whole matter be so referred.

In the event of the delegates failing to accomplish their object, the New Foundland legislature will pass resolutions setting forth that, by the neglect and ill treatment of a century, England has forfeited all claims to further allegiance. A formal appeal will then be made to the United States for protection and for admission as a state of the republic.

READY TO RESIGN.

Parnell's Application for the Chiltern Hundreds Is Sent In.

DUBLIN, March 25.—Mr. Parnell has addressed the Cork leadership committee, informing them that he has sent his application for the Chiltern Hundreds to Col. Nolan, the "whip" of the Irish party, to be forwarded to the chancellor of the exchequer as soon as Maurice Healy, his colleague in the representation of that city, has submitted himself to judgment and gone to his constituents. The rumor which has been industriously circulated of late, that Mrs. O'Shea had changed her mind and would refuse to marry Mr. Parnell at the expiration of the period when the divorce becomes absolute, some six weeks hence, is entirely unfounded. It is probable that the marriage will be celebrated at an early date.

A RUSSIAN GUSHER

ST. PETERSBURG, March 25.—Telegrams from Baku say that a naphtha or petroleum fountain of unusual size has been tapped near there within the past fortnight. It is now throwing off oil at the rate of 50,000 tons, or, in the American style, about 400,000 barrels per diem, the fluid pouring forth in such quantities that a small river has been formed along the banks, on which the crowds stand all day long. The new well is worth several million roubles to its owners, a stock company, although its discovery has sent down the price of naphtha 30 per cent.

Horrible Slaughter.

PARIS, March 25.—A cablegram from Valparaiso gives harrowing details of the recent fighting near there. Two hundred insurgent prisoners were tied together and then mowed down by volleys of cannon and musketry.

Decorated by Russia.

PARIS, March 25.—It is confirmed that President Carnot has been decorated with the Russian Order of St. Andrew. Marshal McMahon is the only other Frenchman who possesses this decoration.

Heavy Robbery in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—The joy of Soloonkeeper Christopher Stickel, of No. 622 North Third street, over the decision of the license court that licenses would be granted to all dealers against whom no remonstrances were filed, has been turned to sorrow by thieves. Stickel celebrated the decision with friends in his saloon on Monday evening, and while the festivity was at its height thieves ransacked his house and stole $1,700 in gold and $700 in greenbacks.

Strikers Issue a Manifesto.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 25.—The National Traders' Assembly 231, K. of L., executive board, comprising the clothing cutters of this city, issued a manifesto to the locked out members of the Knights of Labor in Rochester in reply to the one issued by the clothing manufacturers. From the contents of the manifesto it is evident that the cutters will in all probability try to maintain their rights as a body and not submit to the manufacturers' ultimatum.

Jem Smith and Ted Pritchard to Meet.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Jem Smith and Ted Pritchard each posted £100 yesterday to fight for £500 a side and the championship of England. Pritchard is the lightest pugilist since Tom Sayers' time to fight for the championship.

THE M'KINLEY TARIFF BILL

Explained by Its Author in a Speech to Massachusetts Republicans.

WORCESTER, MASS., March 25.—Ex-Congressman McKinley was given a reception Monday at Mechanics' hall, and he talked of the benefits of his tariff bill. On the platform were Senator George F. Hoar, Mayor Harrington and ex-Governor Brackett. Mr. McKinley made a speech, in the course of which he said that American taxation was a theme that has affected every statesman from the foundation of the government, and it affected the taxpayers just as well. Both parties had agreed that internal revenue taxes would not do, and then it came down to a question of plans. The first was that which looked for taxation for revenue only; the other, while looking for revenue, was at the same time protective. The latter, contended Mr. McKinley, has a thought for the interests and business of the people and their protection. Maj. McKinley made his point clear by a short talk upon the manufacture of glass, and in other trade lines.

A CLASH OF AUTHORITY.

An Army Officer Refuses to Surrender Indians to a United States Marshal.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 25.—United States Marshal Fry, has made a formal demand upon Capt. Somers, of Fort Meade, to surrender the two Sioux Indians—Plenty Horse and Leaves-His-Wife—who were recently indicted for murdering Lieut. Casey. Capt. Somers replied by stating that he considered the Indians prisoners of war, and refused to surrender them. The governments civil officers of this state have notified the authorities at Washington of the determination of Capt. Somers, and requested that a demand be made upon the war department for the surrender of the Indians. The United States marshal is determined, if it is in his power, to give the Indians a trial in the United States district court, which convenes in Sioux Falls, April 10.

FAREWELL FOREVER.

The Remains of Lawrence Barrett Repose in the Grave.

COHASSET, MASS., March 25.—The remains of Lawrence Barrett, the actor, were laid alongside the bodies of his father and mother in the family plot, in the Central cemetery, yesterday. The body was taken from the receiving vault to St. Anthony's church and placed in the middle aisle, in front of the chancel. The coffin was completely surrounded with flowers, sent by friends from Boston and other places. The members of the family, relatives and friends arrived by a special train from Boston. They were at once driven to the church. The services at the church were impressive. A solemn mass of requiem was said, at the conclusion of which a choir, specially selected for the occasion, chanted Mozart's Missa Brevis.

Will Probably Hang.

HARRISBURG, PA., March 25.—Gen. Coffrott, of Somerset, and Lyman D. Gilbert, of this city, appeared before Governor Pattison yesterday and asked for a respite in the cases of David and Joseph Nicely. The application was based on a letter from the keeper of the prison in which the men are incarcerated, to the effect that one of them shows symptoms of insanity. The father of the condemned men was also before the governor. No action was taken, and it is not likely the governor will interfere.

Buffalo Fine Arts.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 25.—Dr. F. James, of Lancaster, has presented the Fine Arts academy here with his entire collection of water colors and etchings, valued at $15,000, and Mr. Willis O. Chapin, of this city, has presented the academy with the best collection of prints and etchings in the state. This collection represents all schools of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and will be arranged similar to the collection in the South Kensington museum.

Saloons in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—The license court has announced that all licenses of last year now unprotested would be renewed, and none others. There are 3,358 applicants. The court added that it was of the opinion that there were a sufficient number of saloons at present. No intimation was made as to what action would be taken regarding wholesale applicants, of whom there are 1,613.

A Big Reward Offered.

WILKESBARRE, March 25.—A circular has been issued offering $4,000 reward to any one who will give information that will lead to the whereabouts of William B. Shepherd, and return him to his family, if alive, or for substantial evidence of his death, so that his family can secure the remains.

THE PRESIDENT OF SOROSIS.

An Appreciative Sketch of a Bright Woman's Career.

Mrs. Jennie M. Lozier, M. D., is the newly elected president of that mother of women's clubs, Sorosis. This lady, whose election was won by an overwhelming majority, belongs to the newer element in the club, having been associated with it for a period barely covering five years—less than a quarter of its age. But during that time Mrs. Lozier has been recognized as one of the most active, efficient and brilliant women in that representative body of feminine talent.

She is a New Yorker born and bred, and was reared in the old "Seventh ward" in its palmy days of prominence as a hightoned residential neighborhood. Her ancestors were of French origin, as the family name, De la Montagnie, denotes.

"Rutgers," which was not at that time designated a college, offered the only facilities for that higher education which is now generally afforded to women, and Miss de la Montagnie was graduated from that institution and is enrolled among the associated alumnæ.

Following her graduation, a trip to the West Indies gave the young girl "a little outlook" in the interval before she entered upon the career of a teacher when barely eighteen years old. In a short time she was made professor of languages and literature at Hillsdale college, Michigan, and subsequently was appointed vice principal of the woman's department there.

Shortly after, while on a visit to her home, the young lady was persuaded to enter a new profession by marrying Dr. A. W. Lozier, a son of the late celebrated Dr. Clemence S. Lozier. At that time she had no intention of studying medicine, and it was not until she had been married several years and her little son was a year old that she thought of becoming a physician.

She has frequently said that her strongest motive for so doing was a desire to assist her mother-in-law in duties which were becoming too arduous for a woman of advancing age, and between whom and herself there existed the tenderest and closest ties of sympathy and affection. Dr. Clemence S. Lozier was the founder and for five and twenty years the dean of the New York Medical College and Hospital for Women, and her gifted daughter-in-law was graduated there, and for years occupied the chair of professor of physiology in that institution. At the same time she was also on the hospital staff, so that her work was both medical and didactic.

As time went on, Dr. Jennie Lozier's professional and domestic cares increased, and when the inevitable clash came the good daughter and wife and mother "let the world go by" and yielded to home claims rather than to the public demand upon time and strength and interest. "A woman cannot be a good physician and have a mother's ties, unless she is made of iron," quoth this wise little woman, and so she retired from active practice.

This was not long before a member of Sorosis invited Dr. Lozier to make an address before that club upon the subject of "Physical Culture," and shortly after she was enrolled as a member.

Since that time her voice has often been raised in its councils, and she is quoted as one of the most reliable and able speakers ever heard there. Her elocution is clear, distinct, but sweet, and gives an added charm to the thoughts she enunciates. She is a gentle woman of broad mind, big head, large gifts and wide attainments, with a peculiar faculty of presenting in pleasant, forceful fashion the topic she is dealing with.

During her membership in Sorosis she has served as chairman of committee on science, chairman of the philanthropy committee and corresponding secretary of that body.

She was sent as a delegate by the New York Medical College and Hospital for Women to the International Homeopathic congress which met at Paris in 1889, and contributed a paper in French on the medical education of women in the United States, which was printed in the transactions of that congress.

Two other clubs besides Sorosis claim Dr. Lozier as president, viz., "The Emerson" belonging to the parish of Rev. Heber Newton's church, which is a large, mixed club of men and women, and "The Avon," a drawing room club, meeting fortnightly. She is a member of the science committee of the Association for the Advancement of Women, of which Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is the president. She is also in frequent request to read papers before various literary and progressive associations in New York and vicinity.

The home life of this busy woman is described by those who know her intimately as peculiarly lovely. Her husband gave up practice some years ago and is now engaged in successful real estate operations. They have a charming home far uptown in the new west side quarter, and Dr. Lozier now finds in the companionship of her two sons and a beautiful daughter a fitting sequel to the pleasure she has always felt in directing their education and accomplishments.

I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roney, druggist, Geuda Springs, Kan. 50 cent bottles for sale by Morganthaler & Heister.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light house

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, 4 years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain; she grew worse rapidly until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold. Get you may get a free trial bottle at Z. T. Baltzly's Drug store.

The following item has been going the rounds of the press, and as our druggist, Morganthaler & Heister, handle the goods, it may interest our readers:

Having had occasion to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it gives me pleasure to state that I found it to be the best medicine for a cough I ever used; in fact, it cured me of a cough that had baffled several other cough medicines.—N. R. Burnett, Atalissa Iowa.
